SECTION IV. FINANCIAL AID REQUEST

All students will first be evaluated for Pell grant eligibility. Your eligibility for the Federal Pell Grant depends on your enrollment status as of May 30, 2006 (the last day to add classes for Summer Term 2006). All courses for the semester must be added by this date, including second and short-term courses. Any courses added after this date will not be used in determining your eligibility for Pell Grant.

- 1. Check here if you are only requesting consideration for a Federal Pell Grant for Summer term.
- 2. Check here if you have not previously submitted a completed Financial Aid Notification Letter (Award Letter) or you have not previously requested a Federal Stafford Loan but wish to be considered for Federal Stafford Loan eligibility, while attending the University of Utah during the 2005-2006 academic year. You will need to complete a Financial Aid Award Letter online. All students requesting a loan must complete a loan orientation. The loan orientation is found at the following web Site: www.sa.utah.edu/finance
- 3. Check here if you have previously received a Federal Stafford Loan, while attending the University of Utah during the 2005-2006 academic year and wish to be considered for additional Federal Stafford loan eligibility. You will need to complete an Additional Loan Request form. The Additional Loan request form can be found at the following website under printable forms: www.sa.utah.edu/finance.
- 4. Check here if you have used all of your Federal Aid eligibility, but are requesting an Alternative Loan for Summer semester. Please attach either a paper alternative loan application or a memo indicating which lender you are using and the dollar amount requested.

SECTION V. CERTIFICATION and SIGNATURE

- I understand that I must comply with the University of Utah's Financial Aid Satisfactory Academic Progress Policy.
- I understand that I will be ineligible for financial aid if I am in default on a student loan or have received an overpayment of federal aid.
- I will notify the Financial Aid Office of subsequent changes to my reported attendance, hours and outside resources.
